

MEMBERSHIP POLICIES

MEMBERSHIP CARD

Each time you come to the Cane Bay Family YMCA, you will need to show proof of valid membership, whether in the form of your membership identification card, a fingerprint scan or app. For security reasons, each member must check-in and scan their membership card upon entering the Y.

The YMCA is a membership organization. Most programs are open to non-members at program participant rates. Use of the facilities is reserved for members, program participants, and their guests.

The Cane Bay Family YMCA reserves the right to update our policies as necessary and without notice. The handbook is meant as a guideline, and exceptions may be made on a case-by-case basis at the discretion of the Membership Services Director, Wellness Center Director, and the Chief Executive Officer.

MEMBERSHIP DUES/FEES

At the Cane Bay YMCA, you can choose your membership payment method from two options, annual or monthly draft. Members may elect to have their monthly payments automatically drafted from their bank checking account or charged against their credit card. Memberships are non-refundable and non-transferable. Your membership dues provide for daily operation of member services.

RETURNED DRAFT FEE

Members will be assessed a bad draft fee and/or a return check fee of $30 for each returned item through bank draft, declination of credit card draft or insufficient bank funds.

CHANGES TO A MEMBERSHIP

If at any time there is to be a change to a membership, the proper change form(s) must be submitted in person at the YMCA at least five (5) business days prior to the designated draft date. Failure to do so will result in that month's draft being non-refundable. Changes via fax, phone or mail are not permitted. Changes made to membership status for those members also enrolled in a fee-based program cannot take effect until draft following completion of enrolled program.

If a member renews membership within 60 days, they may be readmitted as a continuing member. If more than 60 days have elapsed, membership will be subject to joining fees.

MEMBERSHIP RESPONSIBILITIES

Members, guests, and visitors expressly assume the risk of damage to property and harm or death to themselves. Accordingly, neither the CBFYMCA or any of its agents, employees, or invitees shall be liable to the person or any of the persons' family, agents, employees, or invitees for any damage to persons or property when and to the extent that any such damage or injury may be caused, either proximately or remotely, wholly or in part, by any action or omission, whether negligence or not, of the CBFYMCA, or any of its agents, employees, or invitees or due to the condition or design of any defect in the building, its mechanical system, or its equipment.

REFUNDS

The CBFYMCA will refund any membership dues that are paid up front and not used.

HOLDS

If circumstances arise, members in good standing may place their membership on hold for up to three (3) continuous months, once in a calendar year. During the hold period, there will be $10 monthly hold fee. Members must complete the proper hold form in person at a YMCA for a hold to take effect. At the end of the agreed hold period (a maximum of three months), the membership will be automatically reactivated with monthly draft charges beginning to occur again on the agreed upon draft date.
